Art Unit: 1714

The response received 23 June 2005 has been made of record. Claims 1-22 are pending.

Applicants' have made reference to information disclosure statements. No form 1449 has been received.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 9 recites the limitation "calcium carbonate slurry" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 11 recites the limitation "silica slurry" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 13 recites the limitation "kaolin clay slurry" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 22 recites the limitation "liquid blend slurry" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Partain, III et al.

Art Unit: 1714

Partain III, et al disclose aqueous coating compositions comprising hydroxyethylcellulose thickener, propylene glycol and latex binder (see column 13, line 55 to column 14, line 62). The relative amounts of ingredients of the reference are seen as meeting applicants' limitations since applicants have specified relative amounts of slurries without specifying the concentrations of the slurries. Further, the recitation of a coating composition comprising slurries does not limit the overall composition to a slurry. The reference recites Stormer viscosities (Krebs units) for a variety of compositions meeting applicants' limitations (Table 4).

Applicants' recitation of a pH range for the thickener slurry in claim 6 is not seen as imparting patentability since applicants are claiming the overall composition, which composition is not limited to a pH range.

Applicants' method claims, 15-22, are seen as met by the disclosure of the reference.
